Note: -

The application will be considered by a panel of judges set up by Colne Housing Society. The panel includes representation from the board, the residents of the Society, directors and staff. Their decision is final and there is no right of appeal.

The grant will be awarded based on: -

- Evidence of value for money
- Helping the community in the local authority areas that the Society works in
- That the project meets an unmet or under resourced community need
- That no one individual is the sole beneficiary of the grant
